

The Qs of life #6 being happy vs being sad

So what if I'm happy or sad how dose this do anything? How come it is confusing to read these posts sometimes ? Who cares about this topic?!? The thing is that when you are happy you tend to make better decisions then when you are sad, mad, depressed..... and so on. Now listen carefully because if you read the last post you might be thinking that I said it was impossible to make a bad decision when you are happy or a good decision when you are sad. well I didn't say that I said "..... Also ask yourself what good choices that you have made when you had a negative outlook on life? If your answer was not none try to rethink that.....". There i was talking about a positive out look and a negative out look not happy vs sad. these posts are hard to read because there made to make you think not gust read thew like a direction label on something you get at the store. You should care about this topic for its easier to have a positive outlook when you are happy for it is easier to have a negative out look on life when you are sad. NOTE: look carefully at the last to sentences for I say it was easier not impossible. Now ask your self what did this post make you wander about your self today? What to know what it made me think about? It made me think about what the next post is! before I leave you today let me ask you one last thin do these posts prove help full in any way? i thank you for reading this post today and I hope you have a wonderful day. the next post will be about truth and lies. till the next time we meet.

the Qs of life #7 truth vs lye

Why do we have to go over this?!? Why cant we talk about happiness or something? Well it this comes to mind then you have a problem with this don't you.Well to tell the truth we all have problems with these. Now I don't want to say tell the truth and don't lye but it isn't that simple. Telling the truth is like fighting for the good side you will always win in the end! Telling a lye is like Darth Vader (star wars spoof) he loses in the end. Telling the truth will build up trust in your life wile telling a lye will make you loose that trust.If your wandering how this relates to the last posts it dose because you are closer with your friends and family when you tell the truth! What lies have you said in the past day or so? What truth have you spoken in that same time frame? Dose the truth dominate the list or dose the lies? How can you make this better? That's all for today the next post will be about trust! Till next we meet on the roads of life.

The Qs of life b2 by Agent Foxx
Intro. This is a series I created to help people with there every day life. This series is designed to make you think with each post/entry. I hope this dose its purpose to you.

Death is a time you can get closer to friends and family. Now I know some of you have lost loved ones to death so i am sorry for that. But ask yourself did that bring you closer to the other ones you loved? If you haven't lost any one do you think you will handle it the right way? and further for both of you dose this help you? The next post will be about your problems . That's all for now till next time.

the Qs of life #9 death
DEATH?IWHO WANTS TO TALK
ABOUT THIS?IWell I know some of you don't want to talk about this so I respect that but it is a necessity to. As I know as well as you do we are going to loose people though death. But that makes no reason to morn as said in this poem.
Gone but not forgotten!
The ones we loose in life that are close and dear;
When we lose them we are in drear
To the ones lost but always found;
In our tears we will not dround
For we will miss you;
In this life we go though
But we won't fear;
If we hold our memory's near

The qs of life #8 trust
Trust? What is trust? How can i get it? Well trust is defined as: to rely upon or place confidence in someone or something. Trust is gained by telling the truth instead of lies.I don't have much more on this topic except that it will make you closer to your friends and family..who do you trust? Who trusts you? Do you have a problem with trust? How can you improve on this? that's all for tonight the next post will be on (drum roll)
